■ ANDY WARHOL ON SHOW

This summer Villa Padierna Hotel will host the latest collaboration from the Hilton Brothers, brought to Spain by Dideh Art Gallery. "Andy Dandy" is a portfolio of photos of Warhol that combines the work of Christopher Makos, who took photos of Warhol in drag during his years as Warhol's companion, and Paul Solberg, whose "Bloom" series will accompany the photos. The exhibition will be inaugurated on 17 July and remain open for one month More information: info@didehart.com

■ SUMMER EXHIBITION

Sanyres senior resort centre in Puerto Banús will host an exhibition of original art with an unusually diverse range of international influences. To be launched on 19 June, the exhibition features oil paintings, watercolours, mixed media and textile artwork reflecting the colours, emotions and sensations of summer – by eight of the Andalusian International Artists Group's artists: chairman Roger Cummiskey, Dolores Cummiskey, Richard Wood, Ivan Riis, Margit Bjorklund, Jane Gomis, Laurie Scott and Pixie Glore.

The group will also celebrate the arrival of summer with a three-day exhibition of members' work at the studio of artist Richard Wood in Valtocado, Mijas. The exhibition opens on 6 June between 7pm and 9pm and continues on Saturday and Sunday between 2pm and 4pm. More information: www.aia-group.net
